PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honourable Henry Lord Carleton, Lord President of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Stockholm, June 7. The King is now perfectly recovered from his late Indisposition; and the Weather being at length become pretty warm, his Majesty has been abroad to take the Air for four or five Days past. Prince George of Hesse, the King's Brother, having received an Account that the King of Prussia would be in Prussia by the Middle of this Month, altered his Design of going to Carlscroon, and resolved to imbark on a Swedish Frigate called the Black Eagle which lies at the Dahlers, and is ordered to land him at Koningsberg. Accordingly that Prince set out from hence on the 5th Instant about Noon, and was accompanied a League out of Town by the Field Marshals Ducker and Sparre, being attended to the Dahlers by the Younger Marshal Duben, two Gentlemen of the Court, and some other inferiour Officers. The End of last Week the Fleets sailed from Elsenab to Suder Arm, where they continue.

Paris, July 2. Yesterday they begun to pay at the Hôtel de Ville, the Annuities for the first six Months of the current Year. A great Council is to be held this Evening, wherein it will be resolved whether the India Company shall subsist, or a new one be erected in its Room; the one or the other is to have the Farm of the Tobacco. The Parliament will likewise meet this Morning upon the Duke de la Force's Affair, all the Princes of the Blood, Dukes and Peers, being summoned to assist at that Assembly. The King is going for some Days to la Meutte, whilst some Reparations are making in his Apartments at the Tuilleries. Madame de Subize, to whom the King has given the Abbey of Jaarre, being but 22 Years of Age, a Dispensation is sent for from Rome in order to enable her to take Possession of that Abbey.
